WOMEN'S HEALTH ADVOCACY AWARD

In honor of Dr. Jack Ludmir's dedication to serve and advocate for the rights of women, this award is meant to recognize efforts aimed at improving women's healthcare. This includes, but is not limited to, advocacy, research, education, and community service. The scholarship will be awarded twice a year. The scholarship winner will be presented with a Certificate of Achievement along with a scholarship in the amount of up to $500 at the Fall House of Delegates Meeting or at the LMSA National Conference, which will take place from March 4th-6th, 2022 in Philadelphia.

Eligibility

Only active LMSA members that are currently enrolled in an accredited medical school are eligible to apply. Applicants must also attend the Spring or Fall House of Delegates Meeting to receive the award. If you are unable to attend the conference, you must contact us at least one week before the conference with the name of the proxy representative from your affiliated chapter.

Applicants are required to submit a one-page essay describing the activity/project, their involvement, and goals, as they relate to women's health.

Submission Instructions

All essays and letters of confirmation must be sent electronically to directorelect.northeast@lmsa.net by the end of the day of the specified deadline (refer to lmsane.org for all deadlines). Late entries will not be accepted. For more information regarding this scholarship, or if you have any questions please feel free to contact us at the above email address.

Good luck!
